

Curtain Call Theatre has been a South Shore theater mainstay for 55 years! We are committed to keeping theatre vital south of Boston through our longstanding tradition of producing both new works and old standards. We produce three productions a year and we also offer a summer stagecraft workshop for teens.

We encourage you to subscribe to Curtain Call Theatre. As a subscriber you will enjoy seats to all of our shows at the lowest possible prices. We would also like to invite you to get involved with CCT by becoming a member of the theater. Members receive a quarterly newsletter, first notice of auditions, and a free ticket to both the drama and comedy of the season.

Curtain Call Theatre is located in an intimate 70 seat venue at 182 Commercial Street in Braintree. Whether for one show or three, as an actor or stage hand, or as a member of the audience, please consider joining us for our 54th season!

King Sextimus is cursed and unable to speak. Queen Aggravain has taken control of the kingdom. In an attempt to keep Prince Dauntless single, she has decreed that only a princess who can pass her test may marry her son. Further, no one else in the kingdom may marry until Prince Dauntless does. Don't miss this hilarious musical comedy that gave Carol Burnett her Broadway break!

Claire awakens one morning to discover she has a "psychogenic" form of amnesia. Her husband gives her a book he prepared about her life after re-explaining everything so many times. Everything is as it seems until Zach appears from under the bed. He claims he is there to rescue Claire and that her husband wants to kill her. Don't miss this zany comedy by the author of Good People and Rabbit Hole.

Amanda desperately struggles to provide her fragile daughter, Laura, with at least one "gentleman caller." Her son, Tom, dreams of escaping from his job and his oppressive life at home. This exquisite family drama, filtered through Tom's memory, was Tennessee Williams' first successful play and winner of the New York Drama Critics Circle Award for 1945.
